

PRESS RELEASE

National Ornamental & Miscellaneous Metals Association

March 22, 2014
RELEASE IMMEDIATELY

Contact: Todd Daniel
Executive Director
(888) 516-8585, ext. 102
todd@nomma.org

Falling Hammer Productions LLC of Wolcott, CT Wins Awards in International Metalcraft Competition

FAYETTEVILLE, GA — Falling Hammer Productions LLC of 10 Swiss Ln., Wolcott has won an award (s) for outstanding craftsmanship in an international competition sponsored by the National Ornamental & Miscellaneous Metals Association (NOMMA). The event was open to over 500 member firms throughout the U.S. and in 7 foreign countries.

Falling Hammer Productions LLC received the following award(s):

SILVER- Interior Railings - Ferrous, Nonforged

GOLD- Exterior Railings & Fences - Nonforged

The presentation was made at a special banquet in St. Louis, MO, March 15, during NOMMA's 56th annual conference. The Ernest Wiemann Top Job Awards Competition is an annual contest that recognizes outstanding work in the ornamental and miscellaneous metals industry.

To win an award, entrants must submit photos and a description of their work. This material is then publicly displayed in a gallery where NOMMA member firms then vote. Winning a Top Job award has special meaning, since it represents a "voice of approval" from industry peers.

To reach the company, call 203-879-1786.

-30-

Note to Editors: To View the winning entry, visit <http://tinyurl.com/psh5fgz>